The German 10th Infantry Division, stationed in the area of the Poznan 5th Army Corps, was quite a unique formation. The author presents the origin and fighting traditions of the Division's specific regiments in 1866–1871, the organisational structure, the uniforms, the soldiers' equipment and weapons. However, the narration mainly focuses on the history of the 10th Infantry Division in August 1914 – the departure to the concentration area and the fighting in the first month of the war. Bartosz Kruszyński also provides the perspective of the opponent, the French (Paris) 7th Infantry Division. Of great value is the fact that the military operations have been presented from the perspectives of German and French soldiers. The text is supplemented by maps and unique iconography.

Bartosz Kruszyński, Ph.D. (bkrusz@amu.edu.pl) is professor at Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań (Poland) and a military historian. He has published books, articles and chapters in the realm of military history and international security. On top of WWI, his research interests include the Polish-Russian War of 1919–1920, the history of the Poznań garrison in 1866–1939, the photograph as a source for military history, the psychological aspects of warfare in the 20th and 21st centuries and the US armed forces.
